
Whispering Cedars

11-20-1936

Whispering Cedars, November 20, 1936

Cedarville College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/whispering_cedars

Part of the Communication Commons, and the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Cedarville College, "Whispering Cedars, November 20, 1936" (1936). Whispering Cedars. 5.
https://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/whispering_cedars/5

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Whispering Cedars by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

WHEELING CEDARS

Vol. IV No. 5--Nov. 20, '36

DR. TRUEBLOOD SPEAKS

"Every man today has the equivalent of thirty-five slaves at his service" was the opening statement of the very fine address given by Dr. Trueblood of California last Friday morning. He continued by expressing his belief that in this age of mechanism there will be a revival of masters comparable to the old masters of art, literature, science, music, and theology. He answered the question, "Who shall enter this Golden Age?" by the quotation "He who hath clean hands and a pure heart." The further development of his address was built around this theme.

Dr. Trueblood is visiting Ohio during the National Preaching Mission which is being held all over America.

LITERARY

Mr. W. W. Galloway spoke Monday evening at the Literary Society meeting on the subject of Armistice Day. He read interesting excerpts from his diary. He also spoke on some of the problems of our present day as he warned against the evils of Communism and unpreparedness.

* * *

The Y.W. will be filling Thanksgiving baskets for needy families next Wed. Contributions from any member on the Y.M. will be most acceptable. Share your Thanksgiving joys!!!

COMMITTEE SERVICE

The Y.W.C.A. Committal Service was held in the Presbyterian Church Thursday evening. This service, written by Frances McChesney, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. McChesney, is held every year at this time. Music was furnished by Miss Mildred Bickett and by a quartette composed of Beatrice McClellan, Ruth Flory, Kathleen Ehman, and Genovieve Jesson. At this service, the Cabinet members and new members pledge their loyalty to the Y.W.C.A. and the old members renew their covenant.

"Debate"

The first meeting of this season's debate teams was held Tuesday afternoon to find out something about the question. The question this year is: "Resolved: That The extension of consumers' cooperatives would be beneficial to the public welfare." This promises to be a most interesting question as in recent years many farm and church organizations have been advocating cooperatives as a solution to our economic problems.

The teams this year will be composed of two members each. The Cedarville teams are planning as usual to enter the debate tournaments held at North Manchester, Indiana, late in the season.

* * *

The Dramatic Club members have been working very hard on their play for Monday night--"A Boy Comes Home". They have enjoyed this rollicking comedy and they feel sure that the other members will enjoy it.

In recent weeks there has been some discussion concerning a practice of the college student body that has almost become a tradition--breaking up Freshman feeds.

Both the students and faculty are beginning to realize that there is a rather childish practice and that Cedarville College will be better off when it has rid itself of this "tradition". There are some who condone this practice by saying it provides so much fun and excitement. It undoubtedly does but surely young people intelligent enough to be college students can have their fun without chasing each other over the countryside and escaping serious automobile accidents only by pure luck. This practice has also made it impossible for Freshman to have their parties in private homes. Moreover it has contributed to a feeling of ill-will between upper-classmen and Freshmen that is most unfortunate in a student body.

In changing this custom it will take the utmost cooperation between the freshmen and upper-classmen and between the students and the faculty. Most colleges have abandoned this practice years ago. It is time for Cedarville to do the same. By so doing, we shall raise the standard of our college life.

--the Editor

NOTICE!

Miss Santmyer does not care if the boys cut Rhetoric to hunt, provided they bring her a rabbit!

Pheasants are also acceptable.

Editor-----Justin Hartman
Ass't Ed.-----Cletis Jacobs
Sports Ed.-----Ray Sisson
Art Ed.-----Katherine Finke
Bus. Mgr.-----John Tobias
Sr. Reporter-----Ruth Kimble
Jr. Reporter-----Gene Reed
Soph. Reporter-----Fred Lott
Fresh. Reporter-----Genevieve Jesson
Typist-----Bennett McNeal

Y. M. C. A.

"We should spend more of our money for crime prevention and less for punishment" was one of the opinions expressed by Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson in a talk on her work in the probate court before the Y. M. C. A. Mrs. Anderson told of the different phases of their work and of some of the problems which they face. She expressed confidence in the youth of today with their new freedom but warned that many temptations face them which will take much courage and devotion to overcome.

John Tobias was the devotional leader of this service.

For Those Who Stay

The Query Club of the Presbyterian Church is having its meeting this Sabbath evening on a Thanksgiving Day theme. It is at 6:30.

The Epworth League's meeting Sunday evening is on "The Christian Adventure". This meeting will be held at 5:00 P. M. and will be a part of a Fellowship Hour which will include special singing and refreshments.

The Young People's Christian Union of the United Presbyterian Church will also be on the Thanksgiving theme which will be entitled "God's Gifts for All of Us".

Is a "yes" man safe in leap year?

A train one mile long travelling sixty miles per hour goes through a tunnel one mile long. How long does it take the train to go through the tunnel?

Can you swallow without moving your chin? Try it.

Divide any regular polygon into four pieces, then fit together to form a perfect square of equal area to polygon.

What is the difference between charm and beauty?

I am constrained to plant a grove

For a lady that I love.

This ample grove is too composed,

Nineteen trees in nine straight rows,

Five trees in each row I must place

Or I shall never see her face. How?

A son named after father is called junior. What is daughter called when she is named after her mother?

Is it ever too cold to snow?

Do hens shut their eyes on the roost?

The first person, boy or girl, solving the following puzzle will receive honorable mention in this column next week. Here it is:

The following square fields have a side in common with a triangle: No. 1- 115 acres, No. 2- 74 acres, and No. 3- 370 acres. The problem is to find the area of triangle without extracting the square roots of the areas of the three fields.

Why does Robinette have to have her trysts with Bob in the hall over in the High School Building? Is the competition too great in our own College Chapel?

The people in Playground Class thought last week Margaret N's boyfriend had come to see her. But heck, it was her brother!!

Tanksley is getting "Pigeon Towed".

A certain junior is sending heart throbs through a freshman girl. She ever keeps a candle lighted in the window.

It appears as though if a folla goes with one of the Burn's girls he goes with them all.

New Nick Names

"Cuddly" Shively

"Dovey" Pidgeon

"Babe" Bickett

"Toots" Harbaugh

"Wooley" Stoddard

"Speed" Peterson

"Fella" Jessen

"Hot Cha" Stoddard

"Hot Stuff" Helso

Angus Murray is growing a mustache--he wants to look like Clark Gable.

Whose shirt did Harbaugh wear last Tues? We noticed Peterson kept his sweater on all day.

What time did Angus & Grace B. arrive home Monday night???

McDonald is a little backward. Not a woman hater, we hope. Ask Shively for particulars.

Late Special!! Shively says McDonald isn't backward. She ought to know.

When Mrs. Burns places the clock in the room for the girls on parlor nights, why does Burns Tanksley turn it back an hour. The number seems to be increasing. Last week as we peeped through the window we were able to see Agnus Murray, Wilford McDonald, John Peterson, and Burns Tanksley. A new caller has arrived on the spot. Vic Shaw goes for Pidgeon. And does he get her!

Did anyone ever see Burydice Collins making eyes at Tomlinson in writing class? And does Tommy like it? You should see him smile back.

What would "Bob Woosley" do if he saw John and Marthana together.

What's Murray trying to do--start a Harom?

SPORTS !!

Last Tuesday night our big boys, the Yellow Jackets, came up against the boys from the high-school to test their prowess.

Since they were combatting mere high school boys they were just careless enough to let a bunch of little fighters sting them enough to scare them.

We are pretty sure though, that the bunch will get down to business and keep that old bucket busy dropping balls through it, so be sure to be on the firing line for the first game.

Cedrus Play

Don't forget to save your pennies for the Cedrus Play, "Speeding Along". The date is December 8th. The cast is working hard and hope to give an excellent play before a full Opera House!

Frat News

No doubt you have noticed three dark-eyed boys sleeping through their classes the last few days. Ole Judge Tomlinson has been leading the poor pledges through a real bunch of tactics, with "Push" Heifner doing the talking for the pledges. Pres. Tobias has been so interested in some sort of enjoyment of late that he usually shows up at the initiations late. He knows the boys would be sorry if he didn't got to give a whack or two so he drops around to accomodate them. The power of the high school drew Cummings from our ranks a couple of nights, but Ross warmed the pledges sufficiently for both of them. We sure pity any of his pupils who don't call him "sir".

* * *

Miss Bickett, Mr. Dorst, and Dr. McChesney made a business trip to Cincinnati Thursday afternoon.

Can You Imagine?

Miss Force not wanting to share ideas.
Fox getting his stomach full.
Studying at the library with Tindall around.
Miss Santymyer with a permanent.
Ault not patting herself on the back.
Everyone staying awake in Reading class.
Finke not as Sharpe as she was.
Bickett with a smile.
Jurkat sitting on R. Flora's lap.
Fischer without his -a-hem.
Holway acting sensible.
B. McClelland stacking the frat.
Eliz Richards chaperoning Kathryn.
Tomlinson as a "school marm".

I feel futile

Like a hamburger put on the cuff
Like an ole man thats had enuf--ick-hic
Like Irene Allison without her bluff.

I feel futile.

I feel futile

Like a horse without its knicker
Like a drunk without his liquor
Like Sharp without his snicker

I feel futile.

Individual Pictures

This year all the student body will have individual pictures in the Cedrus instead of just the Juniors and Seniors as in former years. These two classes voted Monday morning to have these pictures taken in the near future.

* * *

Tanksley walked home with Pidgeon Thursday.

Rhodes must have given up. Remember Rhodes--"While there's life, there's hope."

Who? Asked Who? Where?? for Thanksgiving dinner???

What about Crawford's curls??

* * *

There will be no paper published next week because of THANKSGIVING VACATION.